

Pet Food

El Salvador prohibits the import of pet food and animal feeds containing ruminant origin proteins (except for milk and milk products, raw hide, and protein free tallow).

Export certificates must state that product was not produced utilizing proteins derived from ruminant items. (The above exceptions should be noted if applicable.)

Other import/certification requirements have not been determined.